TREES DESTROYED BY BOYS.

Trinity Church Corporation Made a Complaint.

Lawlessness in the Vicinity of St. John's Cemetery.

Mayor Gilroy has forwarded to the Police Board the following communication received by him from L. V. R. Cruger, Comptroller, Corporation of Trinity Church:

"Since it has become a settled fact that St. John's Cemetery is to be taken by the city for a park, the boys and young men in that neighborhood have become perfectly lawless. This lawlessness has increased this week to such an extent that our collector, who lives in a house on Clarkson street, says it is impossible for him to collect his rent. The fence has been torn down in many places, the house stoned, windows broken, and his family stoned. They have entered the grounds and cut the bark from trees, and probably some of them are permanently damaged. We have appealed to the police of the Charles street station in vain. Matters yesterday reached such a pitch that I directed the employment of a private watchman to protect the property, and endeavor to have some of the young fellows to whom I spoke to appear before the police.

"As the city now has an interest in the preservation of the trees, I appeal to you, as I feel sure that a word from you will be sufficient to tell the Board to insure protection to the park."

The complaint has been referred to Supt. Byrnes, who will investigate the matter.

He is also on the part of the Charles street police. Capt. John Delaney has command of the precinct.

WHO KNOWS "J. D. HAWLEY?"

A Supposed New Yorker Dead in Philadelphia.

Supt. Byrnes received a communication this morning from the Coroner of Philadelphia, stating that a Coroner's inquest had been held there yesterday on the body of a man supposed to be J. D. Hawley, of New York.

"So far," the letter continued, "as we are able to ascertain, that is his name. He was found dead at the Ashland House, at Seventh and Race streets, this city, having apparently there on Thursday of last week."

"His description is the following: About thirty years old, five feet eight inches tall, weight 150 pounds, fair complexion and light brown hair; gray eyes and partly bald on top of head.

"He sought to identify his identity by tearing from his clothes name and address of the tailor who made them."

"He registered at the Ashland House on or about for several years, under the name of J. D. Hawley, of New York City. He had but little means, and effects of no value. It is believed that he was a member of the theatrical profession."

"Will you kindly have your department endeavor if possible to locate this man or his relatives in your city?"

The letter is signed: "S. H. Aspinwall, Coroner."

WILL EXAMINE PALMER'S SANITY

New Brunswick's Wealthy Banker

Blew Irronments.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., May 3.—The Commission appointed to examine and report upon the sanity of Henry H. Palmer, will meet on May 6. Mr. Palmer was a wealthy banker and retired some time ago. He is upward of seventy years of age. He resides in a handsome new home near the Hudson River. It was estimated that when he died from his illness he was possessed of an estate valued at $200,000.

"For the year past he has been acting strangely, and a few weeks ago was arrested on a charge of maintaining a disorderly house. The case went to the Circuit Court, which found that Mr. Palmer was insane. His relatives took steps to have a commission appointed, and Dr. Lewis, Dr. Van Pelt, Dr. George C. Ludlow, Dr. H. L. Baldwin, and Dr. F. Howell as a commission.

Victims of Epilepsy Stab Himself.
NEWARK, N. J., May 3.—William Logan, aged twenty-five, who is subject to epilepsy, called at the Second Precinct Station-House last night, and said that a woman with a knife had stabbed him on Newark street. His cutting was not deep, nothing but a scratch was found on his breast. Dr. McNamee found that Logan had inflicted the wound himself.

To Look for a Buffalo Man.
The police have been asked to look for William Logau, an eighteen-year-old, a collector for a piano man in Buffalo, who has been missing since Sunday last. His accounts, it is said, are all right.
